Brief Description:

Two-story, painted brick commercial building with a flat parapet with corner caps rising above. The building has a corbelled cornice and decorative vent in the upper wall. Stringcourse creates continuous drip moulding above the upper story windows, which are 1/1 metal-frame with segmental, arched openings and concrete sills. The transom has been boarded up. A flat-metal awning shelters the storefront with a glazed-metal door in the center, flanked by aluminum framed, plate-glass windows. There are fluted, iron piers at corners, with smaller fluted pilasters in antis.
