Brief Description:

One-story, painted scored-brick commercial building with flat parapet topped by metal coping. Cloth awning shelters storefront (E), which is faced in unpainted scored-brick and features a central glazed metal door recessed between two metal-frame showcase areas. Bulkheads are faced in textured brick.

Outbuildings or secondary elements (if significant, use separate form)

Historical Information:

This building appears as an office building with interior hallway along north side on 1943 Sanborn. The current building may be a renovation of this older building, eliminating any sign of the hallway entrance, or it may be a later building.
