Brief Description:

Two-story, vinyl sided with a complex roof of green, standing-seam metal on a stucco foundation. A truncated-hip, one-story porch, shelters most of the S façade, resting on painted brick piers atop stucco piers with a stucco knee wall, forming a port-cochere on the E elevation. Square balustrade atop the porch roof helps create a deck for the 2nd floor balcony. The doors under the porch are original, oval-light wood doors. All windows are obscured by heavy screening. The house has boxed vinyl eaves and a brick chimney on the W slope.
