Brief Description:

One-story, clapboard with a side-gable roof of asphalt shingles on a brick foundation. 2 end chimneys are at the ridge. The right chimney has a corbelled and sawtooth cap, while the left has a concrete cap. A shed dormer at the center of the front slope has four, 4-light wood-frame windows. A full-width porch, under a secondary shed and supported by battered, panelled columns atop brick piers connected by a knee wall, shelters the façade (S). A centered entrance under the porch consists of a 1-light and 2-panel wood door with a boarded transom, and is flanked by 3/1 wood-frame windows with applied shutters. The original, plain, wide cornice is hidden on most of the façade by a later porch, but it can be seen in the side gables where the cornice returns are finely crafted and molded. The corner posts are slender with a vertical bead.
